Qualifications and Experience:

Dean Tong is a nationally recognized author, forensic consultant, and expert witness; concentrating in the areas of divorce, child custody, abuse allegations, (twice), Idaho, and California. Mr. Tong has worked cases from all 50 States, albeit, sexual/physical child abuse, domestic violence, et al, SAID/PA, et al. Mr. Tong has tendered expert witness testimony since December 2001 in 20 States in cognitive developmental child psychology (includes child suggestibility, memory, source monitoring and source mis-attribution errors, et al), evidence-based best practices in child forensic interview methodologies, handling/mis-handling of child protective investigations by CPS/Police, risk assessment sexual interest testing, SAID/PA, and potential iatrogenic psychotherapy by children's therapists in de novo high-conflict court cases. Mr. Tong has testified as a "blind or cold case" Expert Witness in a criminal jury trial from California. Mr. Tong has assisted in several "Indigency - In Forma Pauperis" cases at discounted rates and has been approved by many Judges and public defenders' offices. In Criminal and Dependency/TPR complex child sex abuse cases nationwide, Mr. Tong has worked as both a Consulting and Testifying Expert for the Defense - including Jury Trials - and closely with the Offices of the Public Defender and Office of Public/Indigent Defense Services in Florida (JAC), South Dakota, West Virginia, Iowa, Alabama, Arizona (Maricopa County OPDS et al), Georgia, Minnesota, Texas, California, Maine, and Missouri. Courts have accepted Mr. Tong's testimony in the areas of psychology and social science; including cognitive child developmental psychology; evidence-based best practices methodology of forensic interviews of children allegedly abused, child suggestibility and memory, child protective services/police investigations, SAID/PA, and psychosexual risk assessment testing. Mr. Tong has tendered as an Expert Witness in 19 States and testified as an Expert Witness ~75 times (criminal/civil courts). Not including Depositions, Mr. Tong has testified before Judges and/or Juries in VT, MA, RI, VA, W.VA., NC, GA, FL, AL, IA, KY, TN, ID, AZ, CA, ND, KS, MI, ME, and PA.

Mr. Tong has consulted on protracted divorce, custody and contested abuse-related (high-conflict) cases since January 1995, and has been involved in child custody/sexual abuse accusations cases since 1984. Tong has been retained as a consulting and/or testifying Expert in court cases from all 50 states by parents and/or attorneys in alleged child sexual and physical abuse cases, failure to protect/thrive, shaken baby syndrome, coaching, Factitious Disorder by Proxy, and domestic violence cases. As an Expert, Civil Courts in FL, TN, GA and MI have excluded him from the Rule of Sequestration. Mr. Tong has also testified as an Expert at Post-Conviction Criminal Court Evidentiary Hearings in Florida (3.850), et al. Mr. Tong, in addition to his work involving legal cases in family, juvenile, criminal, administrative appeals and state appellate courts, has testified as an expert witness in criminal/juvenile case pre-trial "taint hearings." Mr. Tong, a former Medical School attendee (1983), is a former licensed lab medical technologist and has reviewed hundreds of ano-genital SANE reports during his career. He possesses advanced medical knowledge to be able to assist in medical child abuse court cases; including alleged FDIA/Munchausen Syndrome, Shaken Baby Syndrome, Sex Crimes Rape Kit cases, et al. And, for protective parents (usually mothers) who have lost child custody or may lose child custody in the future due to alleged false allegations of coaching or alienation, Mr. Tong has helped in many cases.

Publications:

Under Contract: Dean Tong is Co-Authoring with a Clinical/Forensic Psychologist an academic guidebook tentatively titled Parents' Pawns: How children are used as weapons in false allegations of abuse cases, and is slated to be published in 2025. Dean Tong's third book Elusive Innocence: Survival Guide for the Falsely Accused (Huntington House, 2002) received peer-reviewed recognition in the May/June 2006 issue of The American Journal of Family Therapy in a scientific article titled Parentectomy in the Crossfire. In addition, the book was reviewed in Legal Alert published by the Florida Bar in 2002. Mr. Tong's first book, Don't Blame ME, Daddy (Hampton Roads, 1992) was groundbreaking in that it was the first published work in any commercial bookstore addressing false/unfounded child sexual abuse allegations within the dynamic of high-conflict divorces and child custody battles. Tong also contributed a Chapter titled Falsely Accused: From Victim to Victor published by Mithra Publishing, 2015 as well as a Chapter titled Find Your Calling Through a Horrific Memory: the Story of a Victim Turned Expert in the book The Ultimate Guide to Healing Your Past published by Frank Healy (2015). Mr. Tong is also Author of the paper – Pitfalls When Divorcing a BPD Spouse, and Creator of the taped series' – Sexual Allegations in the 90's and In Fear of Fathers. Dean Tong's work; and specifically his published peer-reviewed scientific journal article and third book have been cited by a bevy of psychologists within their own published works. Dean Tong is the author of a scientific peer reviewed journal article titled "The Penile Plethysmograph, Abel Assessment for Sexual Interest and MSI-II: Are They Speaking the Same Language?" published by Taylor and Francis in their May – June 2007 issue of The American Journal of Family Therapy. Mr. Tong's scientific study, which achieved statistical and clinical significance, is referenced by Gene Abel, M.D. at his web site here <http://abelscreening.com/research-development/>. On January 13, 2009 Mr. Tong's study and article was cited and quoted by the 7th Circuit Court of Appeals for Western Wisconsin in the case of The United States of America v. Bruce J. Rhodes (Case No. 07-3953) referencing the Penile Plethysmograph. The exact scientific citation for Mr. Tong's article is: The American Journal of Family Therapy, 35:187-202, 2007 Copyright Taylor & Francis Group, LLC ISSN: 0192-6187 print / 1521-0383 online DOI: 10.1080/01926180701226762...In addition, Tong's peer-reviewed psychosexual study above has been cited by psychologists at www.researchgate.net in the Journal of Sexual Aggression (9/15), the Archives of Sexual Behavior (10/14), and in the scientific peer-reviewed journal article William & Mary Journal of Women and the Law, Vol. 24, Issue 3, 2018 -The Hard Truth about the Penile Plethysmograph: Gender Disparity and the Untenable Standard in the Fourth Circuit by Lindsay Blumberg, and in the book chapter titled Sexually Problematic Behaviors - Forensic Mental Health Evaluations in the Digital Age - published by Springer in February 2020. Mr. Tong's 2007 published psychosexual study on risk assessment testing of the accused in alleged child sex abuse cases has been viewed over 3000 times and cited more than 20 times in collateral peer-reviewed/published journal articles.
